

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF BRAD WISE

FRIDAY UPDATE: 01.05.24

Scams

01.04 The victim stated back on December 3 his Facebook account was hacked and he could no longer access it. He stated he wasn't too concerned because he rarely used Facebook and didn't think he had any personal information on it. He stated he contacted Facebook and notified them his account had been hacked but they still haven't taken it down. He stated yesterday, a friend of his saw the hacker made a post and was trying to sell a car and to appear legitimate, showed a photo of the victim's license to prove that it was him. He stated he notified all his financial providers and placed alerts on his accounts but they advised him to get a case report number in case the hacker was able to successfully make a fraudulent transaction with whatever information they had.
