

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF BRAD WISE

FRIDAY UPDATE: 07.14.23

Scams

07.12 The victim reported she had $710 dollars stolen through Western Union. She stated the day prior she was on her computer when a virus ad popped up on her computer and wouldn't go away. She stated that there was a number to call and she finally called it speaking with a Ron Matthew with Microsoft. She stated the male had a foreign accent and asked for permission to access her computer. Sandra stated she gave him permission, but when he brought up payment, she hung up with him and thought it was a scam. She stated the next day she found out that somehow $710 dollars was transferred out of her account through Western Union.

07.13 The victim suffered a $25,000 loss over the course of two-and-a-half years. He stated that he had been giving a female money by way of gift cards. He has received multiple checks from her for pay back, but the checks are fraudulent. I reviewed the receipts and checks he had from the female he knew to be Rylee Galvan. He has never met Rylee in person they only communicate via text or email and that her phone number constantly changes every few weeks or months. He stated that he has been willfully sending Rylee money over the years with the understanding that she was going to pay him back. The first check he was sent was in the amount of $10,000 on 05/01/2023 was altered/fictitious. He received three more checks in the month of June in the amounts of $25,000, $4,000, and $25,000. He brought the checks to the bank and the bank would not cash them because they knew they were fraudulent. He stated that he would purchase the gift cards and give Rylee the code to them via text/email. He said she lived in Minneapolis. There is no such person in Minnesota.
