

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 04.30.21

This week's observation, if you have warrants don't live around attentive neighbors: Neighbors called in a possible burglary in progress. They observed a woman crawling in a back window and called 911. The deputies arrived and surrounded the home. When called out, a female came out of the home and identified herself. She stated she forgot her keys and therefore climbed through the window. She advised her roommate was supposed to be coming home to let her in, but he had not shown up yet. Once she was formally identified, it was learned she had three warrants. She was arrested.
